

JANE ADAMS
Guiding Eyes for the Blind
Board of Directors

---

Jane Adams joined the Board of Guiding Eyes for the Blind in July 2015. Ms. Adams has over 30 years experience in the field of financial accounting, reporting, and analysis. Ms. Adams currently serves as a consultant to various investment companies. Previously, Ms. Adams was a Managing Director with Maverick Capital, a private investment fund. Ms. Adams also served at the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) as the Deputy Chief Accountant and Acting Chief Accountant in the Office of the Chief Accountant. Ms. Adams was employed in various other regulatory positions, including Project Manager at the Financial Accounting Standards Board and Director of Accounting Standards at the American Institute of CPA's before joining the SEC. In addition, Ms. Adams was the Equity Research Director of Accounting and Tax Policy at Credit Suisse and worked as a public accountant at KPMG.

Ms. Adams received her BA from Vassar College and her MBA from Pace University. She is involved in a number of non-profit and municipal organizations and currently serves as Chair of the Waterford, CT Harbor Management Commission.

Ms. Adams and her released guide dog, Sherlock, are a registered pet therapy team who visit at the local hospital, cancer center, and nearby colleges.

